

BS 109 Biblical Languages (12)

Puritan Reformed Biblical Seminary

Master of Divinity

May 2015

COURSE OUTLINE

Course Description

A basic study of grammar and syntax of biblical languages : Greek and Hebrew.

Course Objectives

1. The student will be able to read both Greek and Hebrew languages.
2. The student will be able to parse each word and define its syntactical relationship.
3. The student will be convenient to translate the biblical passages.

This course will be taught by Christopher Engelsma who is currently serving as a Director for Distance Learning at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary (PRTS) Grand Rapids MI.