

HS 499 Master's Thesis (6)

Puritan Reformed Biblical Seminary
Master of Arts (History of Christianity)
May 2015

Thesis

The student must write up a scholarly research paper 90 – 100 pages in the scope of history of Christianity. The thesis must be completed within three years from the date of enrollment into the program. The thesis must demonstrate the student's competence in critical thinking, in doing original research, and in expressing himself in proper literary style. It must also evidence that he has gained and presented his thesis with best understanding. The format and style of Master thesis must conform to A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian and PRBS style of the papers.